CHARTER ESTABLISHING
THE CENTRE FOR COORDINATION OF AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT FOR SOUTHERN AFRICA
(CCARDESA)
PREAMBLE

WE, the representatives of the Governments of:

The Republic of Angola
The Republic of Botswana
The Democratic Republic of Congo
The Kingdom of Lesotho
The Republic of Madagascar
The Republic of Malawi
The Republic of Mauritius
The Republic of Mozambique
The Republic of Namibia
The Republic of Seychelles
The Republic of South Africa
The Kingdom of Swaziland
The United Republic of Tanzania
The Republic of Zambia
The Republic of Zimbabwe

ACKNOWLEDGING that the capacity of the SADC region scientific community to undertake and manage research and development (R&D), and related training activities has increased considerably;

CONVINCED that cooperation in agricultural R&D would enhance efficiency in achieving results to help alleviate the common problems of poverty, unemployment, food insecurity, land degradation, recurring droughts and improving sustainable regional agricultural productivity;

DESIROUS of promoting sustainable and pro-poor growth through the collaborative development of appropriate technologies to enhance agricultural production and natural resource management;

DETERMINED to translate Pillar 4 of the NEPAD Comprehensive Africa Agriculture Development Programme (CAADP) and the Framework for African Agricultural Productivity (FAAP) on agricultural research, technology generation, dissemination and adoption into action in order to achieve tangible sustainable results and impacts in the SADC region;

ACKNOWLEDGING that the principle of subsidiarity, as expressed by the SADC Council of Ministers at its meeting in Grand Baie, Mauritius, in 2004, is cost-effective and promotes accountability and sustainability;

REAFFIRMING the Plan of Action from the SADC Extra-Ordinary Summit on Agriculture and Food Security in Dar-es-Salaam on 15th May 2004, known as the “Dar-es-Salaam Declaration on Agriculture and Food Security”, and the Regional Indicative Strategic Development Plan (RISDP) as the guiding policy documents for SADC;
RECOGNIZING that science and technology is indispensable for growth and the means through which Member States can address agricultural productivity and food security;

RECOGNIZING the importance of women's role in agriculture in the SADC region and the need to promote labour-saving and gender-sensitive technologies;

REAFFIRMING our commitment to achieving the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) and uplifting the living standards of the people of the SADC region; and

RECALLING the Decision of the SADC Council of February 2010 establishing a Subregional Organisation to be named the Centre for Coordination of Agricultural Research and Development for Southern Africa (CCARDESA);

3. Amendments to this Charter shall be adopted by a decision of three quarters of the States Parties.

ARTICLE 21
SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

1. Matters regarding the interpretation and/or application of this Charter, its annexures and any of its other subsidiary legal instruments, which are not resolved by negotiation and agreement shall, in the first instance, be referred to an ad hoc Committee composed of three (3) members appointed by the States Parties Ministers and shall include a legal expert. The ad hoc Committee shall reach a decision within 60 days of appointment. The decision of the ad hoc Committee shall be offered to the States Parties Ministers for their consideration and decision in terms of the provisions in this Charter.

2. Any dispute between parties as CCARDESA members or as represented on CCARDESA General Assembly, or CCARDESA's Board or Secretariat, which cannot be resolved by due and timeous consultation and agreement of the States Parties Ministers, shall be referred to an external arbitrator acceptable to all disputing parties. The decision of the arbitrator shall be reached and communicated to the parties within 45 days of commencement of the arbitration. The arbitrator's decision shall be binding. The cost of such arbitration shall be borne equally by the disputing parties.
3. In the event that the parties fail to solve a dispute under the terms of paragraphs 1 and 2 above, they shall refer the matter to the SADC Tribunal established under Article 16 of the Treaty.

4. The decision of the Tribunal shall be final and binding.

WITHDRAWAL

1. A State Party may withdraw from this Charter upon the expiry of twelve (12) months from the date of giving a written notice to the CCARDESA Secretariat, to that effect.

2. The CCARDESA Secretariat, upon receiving the notification, shall inform the States Parties Ministers of the intention of that State Party to withdraw.

3. A State Party that has given notice to withdraw pursuant to paragraph 1 of this Article shall cease to enjoy all rights and benefits under this Charter upon the withdrawal becoming effective, but shall remain bound by her outstanding obligations under this Charter.

ARTICLE 23
ENTRY INTO FORCE AND TERMINATION OF CHARTER

1. This Charter shall enter into force thirty (30) days after signature by two-thirds of the Member States Ministers responsible for Agriculture and Food Security and thereafter, shall remain open for signature.

2. This Charter shall remain in force, for as long as there are at least two thirds of the States Parties who remain bound by the provisions of this Charter.

3. Upon termination of this Charter any funds and assets, movable and immovable property remaining under the jurisdiction and responsibility of CCARDESA shall be re-distributed amongst the States Parties on terms agreed by States Parties after full and lawful settlement of all operations, staff and creditor liabilities and obligations.

ARTICLE 24
LIQUIDATION AND DISSOLUTION

1. Any proposal for the winding up or dissolution of CCARDESA shall be submitted in writing to all members of the Board at least six (6) months before the date on which such proposals are tabled. A resolution for the winding up of CCARDESA shall be deemed to be passed only by receiving a two-thirds majority of the votes from members and voting, at a Board Meeting.

2. In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of CCARDESA, either voluntarily or by operation of law, the Board of Directors shall by a resolution have the power to dispose of the total assets of CCARDESA provided that such disposal shall not result in the distribution of any part of earnings of the Organisation for the benefit of any private individual or legal entity other than the lawful employees of CCARDESA in accordance with their entitlement as provided for in the terms and conditions of service and in terms of their contracts of employment.

3 The final decision shall be tabled at a special General Assembly and the resolutions shall be submitted to the Chairperson of States Parties Ministers for approval by the Ministers.

4 All actions under sub-articles 1, 2 and 3 of this Article shall be subject to approval of the States Parties Ministers.
