Enhancing Capacity in Excise Tax Management

1. BACKGROUND INFORMATION

1.1 BACKGROUND

The Customs Division of the Seychelles Revenue Commission (SRC) is currently using the ASYCUDA World system for the processing of its Customs procedures. However, the system is not fully functional as there are still some functionalities that are required in ASYCUDA World that are not available to users. This is therefore impacting on trade facilitation in Seychelles. The Excise Tax Module is one of the functionalities that is missing in the system.

Therefore, Seychelles is facing some constraints in the administration of the excise regime which is leading to leakages of revenue. To address this, Seychelles is considering the automation of excise tax calculation which is currently being conducted manually and this will also require reviewing of the Excise Tax Act, Customs Management Act (CMA) and supporting regulations and aligning this to ASYCUDA World requirements on warehousing control.

SRC needs assistance with implementing compliance issues related to fuel and alcohol excise administration. There is also a need to better facilitate legitimate trade by increasing Customs’ ability to build profile on excisable producers. Customs officers need to be able to better assess and collect excise tax on alcoholic beverages and understand expected yields. The excise unit of Customs Division also require equipment to address discrepancies affecting excise liabilities. Staff needs training on the utilization of fuel chemical makers and having the technical knowledge to test alcoholic beverage.

To ensure the balance between trade facilitation and compliance SRC customs needs to have a Post Clearance Audit (PCA) unit that can conduct Customs audit. The PCA unit do not have the capacity to identify high risk companies for Auditing from a monthly database. PCA needs to be able to use the WCO guidelines for Post Clearance Audit Compliance, to develop criteria for selection of audit of excise companies.

2. OBJECTIVE, PURPOSE & EXPECTED RESULTS

Overall objective
The overall objective of the project is as follows:

- Recruit an excise specialist for 6 months’ period to review and propose amendments to the excise tax Act, supporting and relevant legislations.

- Develop capacity of staff in PCA, risk assessment and excise tax

Purpose
The purpose of this contract is to introduce ASYCUDA World Excise Tax computer module in the ASYCUDA World system, Seychelles will require the review of the Excise Tax Act, CMA and its subsequent regulations and aligning these legislations to the ASYCUDA World requirements on warehousing control. The other aspect of this assignment is building capacity for staff in the Excise, Risk Assessment and PCA Units.

Results to be achieved by the Contractor

- Result 1: Excise Tax Act, CMA and supporting legislations reviewed and amended or new regulations developed where necessary:
• Result 2: Excise, Risk Assessment and PCA Units staff fully trained and competent in excise tax
  • Risk Assessment techniques.

3. SCOPE OF THE WORK

3.1 Specific work
The scope of work and the expected outputs/deliverables will be the following:

• Review of CMA and supporting legislation and Excise Act and supporting legislation and propose amendments where necessary;
• Develop new legislation should the need arise;
• Conduct national consultative workshops on the draft amendments to existing legislations and any new legislations proposed;
• Design a training module on excise tax collection and use it to train Customs Officers collecting Excise Taxes;
• Determine the most appropriate way to improve compliance in collection of Excise Tax on fuel, including using fuel chemical markers and training of Customs Officers in the use of chemical markers;
• Determine the most appropriate way to improve compliance in collection of Excise Tax on alcohol and training on assessing and collecting excise duty on alcoholic beverages and understanding expected yields as well as provide training on the use of equipment to measure alcohol content; and
• Establish procedures for assessing compliance of producers of excisable products;
• Build profiles on each producer of excisable goods/products;
• Assist with post-clearance audit specifically relating to excisable imports;
• Design a WCO compliant training course on post clearance audit, tailored for the Seychelles environment and conduct training;
• Work with the PCA Unit in conducting excise tax post clearance audit periodically in the 6 months;
• Design a WCO compliant training course on Risk Assessment tailored for the Seychelles environment and train staff in the Unit;
• Work with the Risk Assessment Unit on how to conduct risk assessment periodically in the 6 months.

If the breach has not been remedied before the expiry of the specified period, the party not in breach may then terminate the Contract in writing and may take appropriate steps to remedy the breach.

9. Liability of the Individual Consultant

9.1 Procuring Entity will be relying on the Individual Consultant’s skills, expertise and experience in relation to the performance of the Services in accordance with this contract and also upon the accuracy of all representations and statements made and the advice given by the Individual Consultant in connection with the provision of the Services.

9.2 In view of the reliance by Procuring Entity set out in 10.1 above the Individual Consultant agrees at its own expense to indemnify, protect and defend Procuring Entity, its agents and employees, from and against all actions, claims, losses or damages arising out of the Individual Consultant's performance of this contract provided that:

a) the Individual Consultant is notified of such actions, claims, losses or damages not later than 30 days after Procuring Entity becomes aware of them;
b) the ceiling on the Individual Consultant's liability to Procuring Entity shall be limited to an amount equal to the contract value, and such ceiling shall not apply to any losses or damages caused to third parties by the Individual Consultant or by the Individual Consultant's willful misconduct; and

c) the Individual Consultant's liability shall be limited to actions, claims, losses or damages directly caused by such failure to perform its obligations under the contract and shall not include liability arising from unforeseeable occurrences incidental or indirectly consequential to such failure.

9.3 At its own expense, the Individual Consultant shall, upon request of Procuring Entity, remedy any defect in the performance of the services in the event of the Individual Consultant's failure to perform its obligations under the contract.

9.4 The Individual Consultant shall have no liability whatsoever for actions, claims, losses or damages occasioned by Procuring Entity omitting to act on any recommendation, or overriding any act, decision or recommendation, of the Individual Consultant, or requiring the Individual Consultant to implement a decision or recommendation with which the Individual Consultant disagrees or on which it expresses a serious reservation.

10. Insurance

10.1 The Individual Consultant must ensure that full and appropriate professional indemnity insurance, third party liability insurance, life/travel and health insurance is in place for all Services provided. The Individual Consultant is obliged to provide full copies of such insurance within 45 days from the signature of this Contract.

10.2 The cost of such insurances will be covered from reimbursable expenses of the contract.

10.3 Where national requirements or practices provide for different regulations/practices concerning insurance, the Individual Consultant may provide written confirmation of all insurances held and a signed declaration that these are in line with regulations/practices in their country of operation. Only if such confirmation has been provided, and written confirmation of its acceptance provided to the Individual Consultant by Procuring Entity, will this remove the obligation to meet the requirements of clause 11.1 of this Contract in full.

10.4 All insurances effected by the Individual Consultant shall be effected with an insurer of good repute and the Individual Consultant agrees to maintain such insurances for a period of 1 year from the completion of the Services under this Contract so long as such insurance continues to be available upon reasonable terms at reasonable commercial rates failing which Procuring Entity shall be entitled to take out insurance itself to cover any potential liability to its own Procuring Entity in relation to the performance of the Services under this contract. The cost of such insurance shall be a debt immediately due from the Individual Consultant.

10.5 The provisions of this clause shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the completion of the performance of the Services hereunder and the satisfaction of all other provisions of this contract.

11. Copyright

11.1 Unless otherwise specified in the Contract, the title of the copyright and any other intellectual property rights arising out of the performance of this Contract shall be vested in Procuring Entity which shall have the unfettered right to assign and grant sub-licences in respect of the same. Except as permitted by the Terms of this Contract, the said materials shall not be reproduced or disseminated without proper consultation with, and written permission from, the Procuring Entity. This provision shall apply to the title to rights arising from the performance under this contract but shall not apply to the internal systems or rights in relation to the Individual Consultant’s own systems not created specifically for this purpose and where the same are an important part of the Services the Individual Consultant shall grant a free and irrevocable licence to Procuring Entity and its assigns for the use of the same in that connection.

11.2 The Individual Consultant warrants that it is free of any duties or obligations to third parties which may conflict with this contract and, without prejudice to the generality of Term 9 above, agrees to indemnify Procuring Entity against any and all actions, costs damages, direct, indirect or consequential, and other expenses of any nature whatsoever which Procuring Entity may incur or suffer as a result of the breach by the Individual Consultant of this warranty.

12. Non Disclosure & Confidentiality

12.1 The Individual Consultant will treat as confidential all information and results obtained in discharging the Services under this Contract and will not disclose by any means whatsoever such results or material to any third party without the prior written consent of the Procuring Entity and will only use such information for the purposes of this Contract. In addition the Individual Consultant shall not make any communication to the press or any broadcast (including, but not limited to, inclusion of information on a website) about the Services without the prior agreement in writing of the Project Director.

12.2 If the Individual Consultant violates clause 13.1, then it will automatically and legally be held to pay the amount estimated as the minimum reasonable damages resulting from a breach of confidentiality. This is without prejudice to the right of Procuring Entity to demonstrate that a higher amount of loss has or may be incurred as a result of liabilities held by Procuring Entity in relation to the Procuring Entity.

13. Suspension or Termination

13.1 In response to any factors outwith the control of Procuring Entity and/or to breaches of contract, Procuring Entity may at any time, by giving 30 days notice in writing, terminate in whole or in part the Individual Consultant’s appointment hereunder but in the event of Procuring Entity doing so then the Individual Consultant shall be entitled to payment as set out in sub-clause 14.4 below.

13.2 In response to any factors outwith the control of Procuring Entity and/or to breaches of contract, Procuring Entity may at any time, by giving 30 days notice in writing, forthwith require the Individual Consultant to suspend the performance of the Services and in such event the Individual Consultant shall be entitled to payment pursuant to sub-clause 13.4 below and provided that if such suspension continues for a period in excess of twelve months then either party may terminate this appointment forthwith by written notice to the other.

13.3 The Individual Consultant may also terminate the contract unilaterally, without providing any reasons for such decision, if she/he gives a 30 days prior written notice to the Project Director.
13.4 In the event of early termination of the Contract under sub-clauses 14.1, 14.2 and 14.3 of this clause then the Individual Consultant shall be entitled to a fair and reasonable proportion of the fees payable for that part of the Services carried out up to the date of such termination or suspension but this shall not include any loss of profit or contracts or any other expenses, losses or claims arising out of such termination or suspension or consequential thereupon.

14. No Waiver

No forbearance shown or granted to the Individual Consultant unless in writing by an authorised officer of Procuring Entity shall in any way affect or prejudice the rights of Procuring Entity or be taken as a waiver of any of these Terms.

15. Variations

Any variation to these terms or the provisions of the Annexes shall be subject to written Addendum and be signed by duly authorised signatories on behalf of the Individual Consultant and Procuring Entity respectively.

16. Jurisdiction

This contract shall be governed by and shall be construed in accordance with Botswana law and each party agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Botswana courts as regards any claim or matter arising under this contract.
