1. BACKGROUND

Migration and Cross- border mobility is inevitable in the integration and industrialization of the Southern African Regional Community people move in search of economic opportunities, improve livelihoods and better education services. SADC main goal in human resource development is to increase the availability of educated and highly skilled personnel to contribute to the industrialisation and socio-economic agenda of the Region. To meet the demands of availability of the educated and skilled personnel, SADC countries adopted in 1997 a Protocol on Education and Training which seeks to promote a regionally integrated and harmonised educational system, especially with regard to issues pertaining to access, equity, relevance, and quality of education interventions. The SADC Protocol on Education and Training promotes mobility of learners, students academics and researchers for the purpose of teaching and learning as no SADC Member State can alone offer the full range of world quality education and training programmes at affordable costs and on a sustainable basis. Article 7 (a) (2) of the Protocol states that “Member States agree to work towards harmonisation, equivalence and eventual standardisation of university entrance requirements. Article 7 (a) (3) states that “Member States agree that in order to prevent costly repetition of courses taken at universities within the Region and in order to contribute towards the mutual recognition of qualifications throughout the Region, universities shall be encouraged to devise mechanisms to facilitate credit transfer from one University to another within the Region”.

A SADCQF was established in 2011 and launched in 2017, to enable easier movement of learners and workers across the SADC region and internationally and to promote life-long learning. It serves as a regional mechanism for comparability and recognition of full qualifications, credit transfers, creation of regional standards, and facilitation of quality assurance and promotion of lifelong learning opportunities. It is a reference framework consisting of 10 levels based on learning outcomes and consisting of a set of agreed principles, practices, procedures and standardized terminology. Its Implementation model consists of six main components that are implemented simultaneously namely (i) development and alignment of NQFs to the SADCQF; (ii) Quality Assurance; (iii) Verification of Qualifications; (iv) Advocacy and Communication (v) Articulation, Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) and Credit Accumulation and Transfer (CAT) and (vi) Governance.

Credit Accumulation and Transfer (CAT) is one of the components that need to be developed to facilitate accumulation and transfer of credits either within the same programme, different programmes and different institutions in the Region to facilitate implementation of the SADC QF. Currently, there is no credit accumulation and transfer system from one institution to another in the region to facilitate the harmonisation of higher education which is necessary for the effective implementation of the SADC Protocol on Education and Training. A Draft Concept Paper of a Credit accumulation and Transfer System was developed by the Southern African Quality Assurance Network (SAQAN) and the SADC Harmonisation of African Higher Education Quality Assurance and Accreditation SADC HAQAA Group within the context (African HAQAA Initiative). The SADC Technical Committee on Accreditation and Certification made inputs to the Draft Guideline however, it was not finalized and there was no wider consultation with relevant stakeholders i.e. universities. Hence, there is a need to further develop and finalize the CAT guideline to facilitate the comparability and recognition of credits accumulation and transfers within and across the region as part of the implementation of the SADC QF. It is against this background that the development of a regional CAT guideline is proposed to be developed to facilitate consultations with all stakeholders and eventual implementation of a CAT in the region.

11.1 Unless otherwise specified in the Contract, the title of the copyright and any other intellectual property rights arising out of the performance of this Contract shall be vested in the Procuring Entity which shall have the unfettered right to assign and grant sub-licences in respect of the same. Except as permitted by the Terms of this Contract, the said materials shall not be reproduced or disseminated without proper consultation with, and written permission from, the Procuring Entity. This provision shall apply to the title to rights arising from the performance under this contract but shall not apply to the internal systems or rights in relation to the Individual Consultant's own systems not created specifically for this purpose and where the same are an important part of the Services. The Individual Consultant shall grant a free and irrevocable licence to the Procuring Entity and its assigns for the use of the same in that connection.

The Individual Consultant warrants that it is free of any duties or obligations to third parties which may conflict with this contract and, without prejudice to the generality of Term 9 above, agrees to indemnify the Procuring Entity against any and all actions, costs damages, direct, indirect or consequential, and other expenses of any nature whatsoever which the Procuring Entity may incur or suffer as a result of the breach by the Individual Consultant of this warranty.

In addition, the Individual Consultant shall not make any communication to the press or any broadcast (including, but not limited to, inclusion of information on a website) about the Services without the prior written agreement of the Project Director.

12.2 If the Individual Consultant violates clause 12.1, then (s)he will automatically and legally be held to pay the amount estimated as the minimum reasonable damages resulting from a breach of confidentiality. This is without prejudice to the right of the Procuring Entity to demonstrate that a higher amount of loss has or may be incurred as a result of liabilities held by the Consultant in relation to the Procuring Entity.

13. Suspension or Termination

13.1 In response to any factors out of the control of Procuring Entity and/or to breaches of contract by the Consultant, the Procuring Entity may at any time, by giving 30 days' notice in writing, terminate in whole or in part or suspend the Individual Consultant's performance of the Services. In such event, the Individual Consultant shall be entitled to payment pursuant to sub-clause 13.4 below. If such suspension continues for a period in excess of twelve months, then either party may terminate this contract forthwith by written notice to the other.

13.2 The Individual Consultant may also terminate the contract unilaterally, without providing any reasons for such decision, if (s)he gives a 30 days prior written notice to the Project Director.

13.3 In the event of early termination of the Contract under sub-clauses 13.1, 13.2 and 13.3 of this clause, the Individual Consultant shall be entitled to a fair and reasonable proportion of the fees payable for that part of the Services carried out up to the date of such termination or suspension but this shall not include any loss of profit or contracts or any other expenses, losses or claims arising out of such termination or suspension or consequential thereupon.

14. No Waiver
